

Douglas Laing Old
Particular Range
(distilled at Auchroisk)
18 year old

48.8%

Here is Auchroisk at its more lifted and clean. A whiff of cooking lentils (a lovely smell) alongside lime and cottage cheese (again nice), it gives the impression of a healthy salad. The palate is sweet and quite buttery, with minimal attention from oak; instead it's all very spring-like, with good mid-palate sweetness. Water dries it slightly, but also extends the palate. Quite lovely.

—Vol. 22, #4