

Celtic Cask Trí

46%

First impression is of molten Reese's peanut butter cups. This 13 year old single grain whiskey has been finished in second-fill red wine casks from Anima Negra in Mallorca, however this wine cask has given the whiskey a kick in the Balearics. The grain character takes a drubbing, the nose engulfed by jam pots and loganberry. It is gentle and deliciously fruity, reminiscent of strawberry, raspberry pop tarts, and citrus groves. Black pepper and caramelized sugar to close.
