

Wemyss Malts (distilled
at Invergordon) Mocha Moment 1988

46%

A rather moreish grain, and Wemyss certainly nailed the chocolate orange aromas on the nose here. Bright bursts of rich orange and comforting milk chocolate accompany gentle underlying spices, star anise, treacle-drizzled hams, and Godiva mint pearls. The palate is easygoing, with chocolate muffins, condensed milk, dates, and milky Coco Pops. There is oak, but it's never obtrusive, and of course, cold mocha that fades slowly, until the moment has passed. (240 bottles) £102

—Vol. 25, #4