

The Silkie

40%

Folklore tells of the Silkies, whose siren voices and beckoning, limpid eyes were irresistible to any man.

From the team planning to build Sliabh Liag Distillery in County Donegal comes a palate of vanilla fudge, wood spices, and some vegetal notes following a nose of cold toffee brittle, fresh-cut herbs, and white pepper. A conspicuous grain character penetrates through, but this adds to a mature profile, making this blend stand out from the crowd of bourbon cask sweeties. €47

—Vol. 25, #4