

Douglas Laing Old Particular (distilled at Carsebridge) 33 year old 1982

45.4%

You little beauty! Maple syrup, pecan, sliced peach, and vanilla-laden bread-and-butter pudding.

Soft baked-apple tart, smooth sticky toffee pudding, red apples, oozing with caramels and a fine layer of spice. The mouthfeel is silky, rounded, and effortlessly elegant. Finish of walnut, clove, and marron glacé. Douglas Laing has brought out some amazing grains lately, but this is better than ever. (K&L Wines exclusive, 233 bottles)
