

Patriot's Trail Bourbon
42%

The rye spice on the nose is big, broad, and aromatic, with allspice and clove in the mix, but there are some distillation issues, with a slight rubber-tire note of feints. Rich and viscous on the palate, it's slightly hot, but shows really lovely spice and toasted nuts, turning oak-dominated on the finish.

—Vol. 26, #2