

Amrut Spectrum 004 50%

Although it sounds more like the warped master plan of a sinister Bond villain, it's actually named after the four different woods in Amrut's second wave of spectrum casks. Prune stone, dried fig, black cherry flesh, raspberry, cinnamon, and a hint of macchiato aromas. Dense concentrated cherry and sultana, cooked apple and pear, heavy spices, and fruit and nut chocolate. Finish of hot, sticky dates and baked orchard fruit.

Commendable.

—Vol. 26, #3