This has the poise and physique of a classic sherried Macallan.

Hazelnut, mixed peel, peach cobbler, and wood spices form a delightful olfactory combination.

Warm, weighty sherry notes bathe the mouth with ginger loaf, milk chocolate chunks, and espresso in support, tilting toward a lip-smacking finish of peach melba and amontillado sherry. It's increasingly rare to find a top-quality aged independent Macallan, so don't miss out.
