Ovaltine, Whoppers, worn leather, antique furniture, medjool dates, and black fruits on the nose.

Sipping this whisky is an unexpected delight. Given the olfactory cues of advanced maturity, it's surprisingly nimble and still light on its toes. A charming opening of crumble filling with red currant, cranberry, raspberry, and strawberry, joined by apple, pear, and sultana, with peppery spice. Chili heat and spicy finish. (Batch 6; 2,000 bottles)
