

Bainbridge Battle Point Two Islands Islay Cask Finished Wheat

43%

This wheat whiskey from Bainbridge Island in Washington State is finished 8 to 12 months in barrels that previously held Islay Scotch whisky for 10 to 12 years.

The nose offers cedar, beach bonfire smoke, and kelp, along with roasted pineapple, apples, and pepper. There's more smoke, sea, and salinity on the palate, as well as meatier flavors of grilled sausage and leather, and the finish shows sweeter notes of caramel, walnut, and chocolate.
