

George Dickel Bottled
in Bond 13 year old
(Distilled in Fall 2005)
Tennessee Whiskey
50%

There's so much peanut in this whiskey, it's like standing in a JIF factory—but there's also cracked corn, mixed berries, Coca-Cola, and fresh apples on the nose, along with weathered oak boards, and, when water is added, floral perfume. Powerful dense oak and cooked cherries, berries, and pomegranate on the palate, as well as cherry Popsicle and a heaping scoop of peanuts. The lengthy finish is rich with leathery oak, baking spice, roasted peanuts, and dark chocolate-covered cherries.

—Vol. 28, #3