Glencadam 15 year old

46%

After an absence of a couple of years, the 15 year old is back. Its temporary withdrawal was due to a shortage of appropriately aged stocks, now in supply. The nose is delicate, with floral notes, plus cereal, cooking apples, and a hint of white pepper. Honey figures on the early palate, with vanilla, more cereal, roasted chestnuts, and nutmeg. The finish is medium in length, with oak and ginger.
