

Sadler's Peaky Blinder Blended Irish Whiskey

40%

Named after the infamous gang that weaponized their flat caps by stitching razor blades into the peaks, this whiskey threatens a nose of raisin, banana bread, Irish soda bread, beer mash, and dark honey. A lightweight mouthfeel, with dried apple, baked goods, oat bars, vanilla extract, and pancakes slathered with maple syrup, a spicy swallow, and a finish of burnt fruitcake. An easy-drinking whiskey.
