

Tullibardine

1993 Vintage, 40%

This Highlander is Lowland-ish in style, but with more heft. There's soft barley sweetness, notes of vanilla and orange creamsicle. Grassy notes emerge from time to time. It is clean and very drinkable. An ideal aperitif, but could be enjoyed anytime between dawn and dinner. Whoever said whisky was an after-dinner drink never tasted this whisky.

—Vol. 14, #3