

Auchentoshan 21 year old 43%

Distinct aromas of gooseberry on the nose, supported by barley freshness, light vanilla, sour cherry, and faint nutmeg notes.

The taste is akin to walking through an orange grove. Light-bodied, smooth, and oily in structure with sweet citrus flavors, tangy strips of peel, fruit Jell-O, honey, subtle oak, and light spices before the gooseberry acidity returns adding further complexity, with spiced orange and cedarwood on the lengthy finish.

—Vol. 30, #4