

The Antiquary

21 year old, 43%

Drier than the 12 year old (reviewed below), with some darker fruit (black raspberry, blueberry) marrying with the brighter orchard fruit. Sweet up front - honey and caramel - with a peppering of spice (dried vanilla, clove, and cinnamon) increasing as the palate develops. Dry, oak spice finish. Lovely!

—Vol. 17, #4